

Rising Star Award

This award recognizes an emerging recent new graduate chiropractor who has demonstrated exceptional dedication, and impact within the first 5 years of their career.

The nominee will have demonstrated success transitioning from school into practice, as well as a commitment to enhancing the understanding of chiropractic care. Demonstrates a strong work ethic and passion for the profession. Shows initiative and leadership in their practice or the chiropractic community.

Patient-Centred Care: Contributing to the development of innovative and patient-centred models of care that improve patient quality of life. Demonstrates outstanding clinical skills and patient care.

Collaboration: Builds collaborative relationships with a focus on quality patient care. May include Involvement with CNS initiatives, interprofessional collaborations, Involvement in mentoring, teaching, or supporting fellow chiropractors.

Community Involvement & Advocacy: Demonstrates efforts and dedication to advocate on behalf of the profession; to educate and help influence positive change. Engages in public awareness efforts to promote spinal health and wellness. Participates in community service and/or outreach programs.

Research/Education: Involvement in research and/or scholarly initiatives that demonstrates positive impact on the profession. Commitment to continuing education and professional development.